STARTLING MERCHANDISE NEWS!

Here is news that will prove exhilarating to every woman who reads it. The galvanic battery of radical price reductions has so electrified our Ready-to-Wear Department that it will be the Pole Star to all who have Winter needs in Suits and outer Garments.

WOMEN'S SUITS.

This season's styles and fabrics in the newest and most desirable colors and fancy mixtures, 25 per cent. off the prices tell the story:

$16.00 Suits now.....$12.00
20.00 Suits now.....15.50
24.00 Suits now.....18.50
30.50 Suits now.....22.50
(Alterations Made at Customer's Expense.)

Dresses and Walking Skirts.

Sixty-three Dresses and Walking Skirts, nearly all of them this season's styles, hardly any two alike, color and black materials. Pan Cheviots, Scotch Mixtures, Mohairs and Manish effects. A nice clean lot of goods worth $10, $8, $6 and $5.

Choice, $3.98.

Children's Coats.

A money-saving opportunity for mothers who want to get a Coat for the girls. Many new and effective styles, and when the fact of our usually low prices are considered—the cutting of 20 per cent. means much. Every Coat in the house

20 Per Cent Off.

Rain Coats.

Cravenette Cloth—the best made. All new styles this season, and a good line to select from. They are included in this cleaning-out sale and have been put in at 20 per cent. off regular price. That means you buy a $15 Coat for $12.00.

Hog Killing.

Remember, Laughlin Bros. will kill your hogs, render your lard, etc. They have on the market spare ribs, back bones and tenderloin.

An Old Note Dug Up.

J. B. Shannon, of Lexington, has received an unpaid bank note from E. P. Slaterry, of Louisville, for $20 drawn on the Northern Bank of Kentucky January 1, 1839. The note was signed by M. L. Scott, cashier, and John Tilford, president and is probably the only note of its kind in existence. The note was drawn in favor of A. Hawkins and made payable at Covington, where the institution had a branch bank. The bank also had a branch at Paris, and when the Northern Bank of Kentucky went into liquidation several years ago all the notes payable on the Paris branch of the institution were collected and paid. At the same time there was about $2,000 worth of notes drawn on the bank that were pronounced forgeries, and their payment was refused by the officers of the institution.

Just Received.

I have just received 500 barrels of fancy New York apples. These apples are fine for either eating or cooking and will keep for six months. See me before you buy your apples and I will save you money.

Filed Suit For Divorce.

Lexington society is considerably interested in the divorce proceedings that have been instituted at Cincinnati by Mrs. John E. Madden against her husband. She alleges cruel treatment and continual use of improper language. Mr. Madden is known as the "Wizard of the Turf," and is quite popular in horse circles. His wife was formerly Miss Annie S. Magrue, of Walnut Hills, Cincinnati, and a very beautiful young woman. They have two small children.

FINE PICTURES.—Nothing better for a Christmas gift than a portrait of Father or Mother—or some member of the family—not the common kind, but the kind we make. Come now and avoid the rush.

DEATHS.

—Mrs. Mary Brannon, relic of the late Mr. John Brannon, died at her home, at the corner of Seventh and Pleasant streets, Saturday at the advanced age of 84. Mrs. Brannon was one of our most highly respected and oldest citizens. She had not been able to get out often for a number of years, but was well and favorably known by all of our older citizens. She was a devoted member of her church, a loving mother, and had for these many years shown her faith by her works. It is but another faithful old landmark that has gone to reap her reward. She is survived to mourn her loss by three sons—Mike Brannon, of Oklahoma, B. H. Brannon, J. F. Brannon and E. H. Brannon, and one daughter, Mrs. Joe Malaney, all of this city.

Funeral services were held yesterday morning, at 9 a. m., at the Catholic Church, services conducted by Rev. Father E. A. Burke. The pall-bearers were: Martin Doyle, John T. Doyle, M. Flannigan, Michael Holleran, Thomas Moran and Michael Toolen.

—Mr. Thos. Terry, aged 79 years, died at his home, on South Main, Saturday night, after a lingering illness. Mr. Terry had long been an invalid and was one of our most highly respected citizens. He is survived by a wife, four daughters—Mrs. Annie Warren, of Lexington, Mrs. Alice Swearingen, of Kansas City, Misses Maud and Beatrice Terry, of Paris; and two sons—Mr. Frank Terry, of Kansas City, and Mr. Phil Terry, of New York City.

He was born in Whitby, England, but reared in Canada, his parents removing to the Dominion while he was a child. The funeral will take place from the family residence this afternoon at 2:30, Rev. Clarke, of the M. E. Church South, officiating. Burial at the Paris cemetery.

—Mrs. Ann Drohan, a resident of this city about 25 years ago, died at her home in Cincinnati Friday. She was a most excellent woman and will be remembered by our older citizens. She is survived by one sister, Mrs. Jake Schwartz, of this city, and seven children, three sons and four daughters. Funeral services were held at Covington and burial took place yesterday morning from the 11:57 train in Paris cemetery. Besides her seven children her remains were accompanied to Paris by about 15 of her friends from Cincinnati. She had been in failing health for some time, but a severe fall recently hastened her death. She was about 64 years old.

—The Hon. Fenton Sims, one of the best known lawyers and politicians in Western Kentucky, died of paralysis at his home in Cadiz, Saturday morning. He was stricken while making a speech in a murder case nearly three months ago.

—Col. Tobias Gibson, one of the oldest and most prominent men of Lexington, died suddenly at his home in that city, Sunday night.

MILLERSBURG.

—Mrs. Dalzell, of Missouri, is visiting her brother, Kader, and sister, Miss Nannie Burroughs.

—Mrs. Ed. Hull and Miss Lizzie Miller attended Missionary Convention at Carlisle last week.

—Mr. R. B. Boulden and daughter, Miss Mary, are doing as well as could be expected from their burns.

—Mr. R. J. Hinton, of Flemingsburg, is the guest of F. F. Hurst and family from Saturday to Monday.

—Mrs. Romulus Payne and daughter, of Payne's depot, are guests of her sister, Mrs. G. S. Allen, from Friday to Monday.

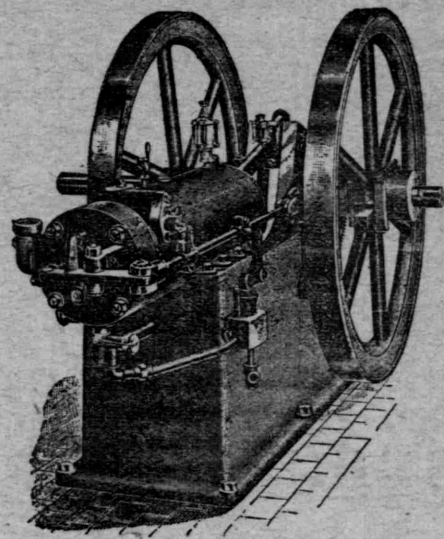

Rev. B. C. Horton is holding a protracted meeting at M. E. Church. He will be assisted this week by Dr. Barrow, of Virginia.

—Mrs. G. S. Allen received at her home Friday afternoon. The home was beautifully decorated with many plants and flowers. The lunch was splendid and handsomely served.

HOLIDAY OPENING.—Your family and friends are invited to attend the opening and display of holiday goods at the store of C. W. Howard, Millersburg, Ky., on Wednesday and Thursday, December seventh and eighth, 1904, 9 a. m. to 8 p. m. Refreshments and music. If you fail to receive a card come anyway you are welcome.

—At Millersburg opera house, The McDade Fun Makers, advertising the Great German Remedies will be at Millersburg two weeks, commencing December 5. Entire change of program nightly. Admission 10 cents. Don't fail to see them as they give a big moral and refined entertainment suitable for all.
